

Privacy Policy of

Future Farm Technologies Inc.

Effective Date: January 1, 2019

1. Policy. Future Farm Technologies Inc.'s ("Future Farm") Privacy Policy covers Future Farm's treatment of personal or personally identifiable information ("Personal Information") that may be collected when you are on the Future Farm website and when you use Future Farm's services. This policy does not apply to the practices of companies that Future Farm does not own or control, or to individuals that are not under Future Farm's supervisory control.

2. Collection and Use of Personal Information. Future Farm may collect Personal Information when you use certain services on the Future Farm web site or when you visit cookie-enabled web pages. Future Farm may also log your IP address when you use the Future Farm web site. Future Farm uses this Personal Information to fulfill requests for our services or products, to contact users regarding changes to our site or our business, and to customize the content that you might see on the Future Farm web site. Future Farm may also use "cookie" files to better serve your needs by creating a customized web site which fits your needs.

3. Sharing and Disclosure of Personal Information. Future Farm will not sell or rent your Personal Information to any individual, business, or government entity. Future Farm may share your Personal Information with other entities should you request Future Farm to share such information, or if Future Farm is required to respond to court orders, subpoenas or other legal process.

4. User Accounts. Future Farm may allow users to set up personal accounts to shop in an online store or participate in our online communities. You have the ability to edit your User Information at any time and may delete your account at your convenience. Under no condition will Future Farm share your user account information with another individual, business or government entity, unless Future Farm is required to respond to court orders, subpoenas or other legal process.

5. Encryption. All user account pages are protected with Secure Socket Layer ("SSL") encryption. All user accounts must be accessed with usernames and passwords. You are advised not to share your username and password with any other person.

6. Amendments. Future Farm reserves the right to amend this policy at any time. Future Farm will contact registered users by e-mail and shall also post a notice of changes on its web site, if and when the terms of this policy are amended.

7. Contact. You may contact Future Farm directly by e-mailing admin@futurefarmtech.com should you have any questions regarding this policy.
